Submitted herewith is additional material on Throwoff/3.

1. Life history

The only information in our files pertaining to subject's life history is contained in his PRQ Parts I and II, which were forwarded to Hqs. aq PGAA-3373 and PGAA-3403 respectively.

2. Escape story

a. Complete information concerning subject's escape from Yugoslavia to Greece is not available in our files. It is possible that this information is available in Rome where subject was first contacted by KUBARK.

b. It has been established, however, that subject was a member of the group which was led by GASH during the escape through Jugoslavia in 1946. (See PGAA-5771, item 22).

3. Personality assessments

Subject was handled by the [ ] Station since October 1950 and participated in two clandestine missions in 1951. His character, reliability and security can be rated as average during the training period and while he was actively engaged on clandestine operations. Subject's intelligence and capabilities are limited, but he would perform the tasks assigned to him and he always made a sincere effort to carry his share of the burden.
